Scouts marching around Valletta

Scouts and guides alike marched down Valletta this morning, commemorating the centenary since the founding of the Scout Association of Malta. The National Centenary Flag was borne, flying alongside the Colours and accompanied by the pipes and drums of 19 scout bands who took part.

The parade was led by the Marsa Scouts, celebrating the founding of the scout associate on November 9th, 1908, as the first Scout Association outside the United Kingdom.

40 Scout groups and 30 guide companies took part in the parade, numbering approximately 4,500, all giving a good performance.
