

Feb 8, 2008 - 11:02:57 AM

Candlemas ceremony at St John's Co-Cathedral

By MaltaMedia News

On Thursday, Archbishop Paul Cremona celebrated Candlemas at St John's Co-Cathedral in Valletta, an occasion which summons the Biblical story of when infant Jesus was presented in the Temple.

During his homily, Archbishop Cremona told those present that Christ is the light for all nations and that in parishes, the Church has to be the light for those who do not form part of it. Mgr Cremona also said that every Christian community has to see how to purify itself.

During the ceremony, every parish priest presents a candle to the Archbishop and to his Vicar General, Bishop Annetto Depasquale as a sign of respect, honour and fidelity.

© Copyright 2008 by MaltaMedia.com
